

Planning your Spanish vacation

Costa Brava is the coast of Girona province. This is one of the most visited resorts in Spain, which includes such tourist areas as Blanes, Cadaques, Sant Feliu de Guixols, Lloret de Mar, Rosas Santa Cristina d'Aro. These cities represent a coastal tourist centers.

These are only some of the more popular tourist attractions of the Costa Brava, where golf and various water activities form the great place for spending unforgettable vacation. People from all around the world are looking for rentals offers to get the perfect accommodation on short term and organize their holidays in this Mediterranean paradise.

More than 200 kilometers of beaches, the Mediterranean climate, breathtaking scenery, great gastronomy and more than 300 days of sunshine. This is the most accurate description of the Costa Brava. The tourist infrastructure is highly developed here. You can easily find a lot of attractive propositions to rent an apartment on long and short term.

Thanks to its rich historical heritage, it is possible to find attractions in every corner here. This is the place that was visited by the great artists such as Salvador Dali. Salvador Dali lived in Cadaques, a city rich in its historical heritage, natural landscapes and of course the city with great tourist infrastructure, a large number of hotels and apartments rentals propositions.

The resort occupies a large area of Catalonia, and famous for its diverse landscapes. The main feature of the area is in the fact that it is located between the mountains and the sea, making it an ideal place to stay! Short term and long term apartment rentals here will appeal to those who love the urban environment, but at the same time wants to feel at one with nature. The atmosphere of the place is imbued with the traditions of Catalonia, so staying here, you will not only be able to visit various cultural events, but also to get acquainted with national traditions, as well as enjoy the local cuisine.

Costa Brava infrastructure offers a wide selection of apartments and villas located throughout the region at a various rental rates. So, everybody can find the option that will suit him in terms of money. To the north, in the district of Alt Emporda, it is possible to find a lot of luxury villas in Rosas, Cadaques and Empuriabrava. The south offers you a wide selection of apartment rentals in Tossa de Mar, Blanes and Lloret de Mar. It is for you to decide, whether to find an apartment on a short term or not. There are a lot of offers from which you can choose the best one. If you prefer the atmosphere of the city, it is advisable for you to find an apartment in Girona - this city is very close to the Costa Brava, just 30 minutes from Girona Airport.

Wish you are perfect vacation!

Dasha Tokareva for Sweethomeabroad.com company offering villa and apartments rentals in Costa Brava and Costa Dorada.

Home Page